Join us for a four-part dinner series dedicated to healing and nourishing one another. Through this series, we plan to explore together how systemic racism affects and infects our relations. We invite you to meet new people, hear new stories, and discover ways to connect with others who see that the world needs more care and kindness, less suspicion and doubt.

We look forward to seeing you on four Sundays (Sept 12, Oct 3, Oct 17, and Nov 14) from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m., when you will enjoy light meals prepared by our friends at Skid Row Coffee. Each dinner will have a prompt for conversations in intimate (while socially distant) circles of no more than seven other people. Our goal is to make each dinner and conversation nurture your personal commitment to see our common humanity and to honor very different life journeys. Our hope is that you will experience sacred hospitality and generosity in the stories that will be shared.

This gathering is being co-hosted by the Black/API Healing Circle, Shadetree Multicultural Foundation, Pacific Unitarian Universalist Church, and the Gift of Compassion, a program of Commonweal.
